

MATERNAL INFANT HEALTH SUMMIT

July 15-16, 2026

SAGINAW VALLEY STATE UNIVERSITY
UNIVERSITY CENTER

The 2026 Summit will feature national and state maternal and infant health leaders with presentations and discussions for families, practitioners, social workers public health professionals and students.

EXHIBITOR & SPONSOR INFORMATION

We invite you to join us at the Maternal Infant Health Summit.

The 9th annual Maternal Infant Health (MIH) Summit is a gathering for champions of maternal, infant and family health—igniting momentum across Michigan and beyond. This dynamic gathering connects a powerful, multidisciplinary network of national and statewide leaders dedicated to shaping the future of care for mothers, infants and families.

This vibrant event is more than a meeting—it's a driving force for change. Here, innovative ideas spark action, powerful stories inspire progress and collaboration fuels breakthroughs.

Michigan's MIH Summit stands as a catalyst for innovation and transformation—confronting long-standing challenges, breaking down barriers to health and advancing bold, actionable solutions to advance healthy births.
